MARMORIN SAND

Tempo. Tempo che non è eterno, né si muove come potrebbe apparire. Ma giace immobile.
Non gli dà corpo il fatto nuovo. Non lo rivoluziona, né trasforma.
Da una finestra aperta, la tranquillità omogenea di un paesaggio in posa.

Time. Time is not eternal, nor does it move as it might seem. But lies motionless.
Every new event adds no substance. Nor does it involve a revolution or a dramatic change.
The homogeneous tranquility of an immutable landscape seeps through an open window.

VIX ALIT

Arredare una casa è come entrare con la mente in una villa addormentata sotto il sole. Aprirne l'alto portone e attraversarla come farebbe un bambino incalzato dalla curiosità. Combinare le migliori situazioni per creare i nostri spazi preferiti.

Furnishing a house is like travelling with your mind to a villa asleep in the sun. As a child driven by curiosity, you open the door and go from room to room. You combine the best situations to create your own favorite rooms.
